Mary, Joseph, and baby Jesus

Cinnamon Dough Ornaments

- 1/2 cup cinnamon
- 1/2 cup store bought applesauce (homemade sauce will likely be too watery)

Or, any equal portions of both ingredients depending on the quantity you desire.

Directions:

- Stir together cinnamon and applesauce with a spoon until the dough becomes stiff, then use your hands to create a ball of dough.
- Place the ball of dough on a sheet of waxed paper, flatten slightly with your fingers.
- Place a second sheet of waxed paper over the top of the dough and roll out dough to about 1/8 inch thick.
- Use cookie cutters or your own template shapes. Use straw to make hole for hanging.
- Air dry creations on a waxed paper-covered cookie sheet or a cooling rack for at least 24 hours until they are completely hard.

YOUTH NEWS

BY DUANE STINE

In the last newsletter article we were praising God for a newborn to the youth staff. This time we have that great privilege again. We are rejoicing in the births of Matthew and Andrew Oakley!

This fall has been very exciting in the youth department. The study on “Prayer: Does it Make Any Difference” is going well. We have been seeing as many as 20 students come for these meetings. Sunday night’s series, focusing on “Community,” has been beneficial as we slowly witness a change in the group to becoming more of a team.

LIFE 2010 Update: We have already registered six adults and 13 students and have reserved our hotel rooms for next year. There are a few more students who are still working through some logistical and financial issues before they make a final commitment. The excitement is already starting to build as we make firm steps toward the goal. Thanks again for your support of the students!

Some of the very cool highlights from the fall include taking the entire youth group to the viewing for Ken Hartsock’s father. It was a great opportunity to show our support to Ken, Cathy, Brock, and McKensey. Also, we took a group to “Overflow.” This is a local, non-denominational youth gathering from area churches for the purpose of Praise, Worship, Prayer and Communion. God settled in on the meeting in a way that I have not seen since LIFE. Everyone in our group was touched in some way. Some were deeply burdened for friends, others received a confirmation regarding their future plans and another felt the call to missions. It was a time that we will never forget! Praise God!
